CLASS HISTORY

Today there are 61 "proud Seniors" awaiting the hour of graduation. As we approach this appointed hour, it is with pride and earnestness that we remember the beginning of our high school days--- four long years ago---when eighty-four confused, excited, yet determined freshmen started up the ladder to a higher education. Had it not been for the advice and concern of Miss Gladys Sledd and Mr. Fred Braddy, our advisors, many of us would have stumbled and fallen. We, who have made the grade, give our thanks to these advisors, because we have succeeded.

Now that we are seniors, we are looking forward to our class rings almost as much as to graduation. They both stand in our minds as symbols of hard work, joy, and sorrow. The thought of our rings brings back the memories of all the activities in which our class members have participated.

When we were freshmen, twelve were chosen from our class as waiters ans waitresses for the Junior-Senior Banquet. They were Faye Sullivan, Harold Cutler, Becky Adams, Bobby Boyd, Sue Woolard, Travis Alligood, Betty Roelofs, Sherrell Ambrose, Cecilia Lilley, Billy Askew, Verna Woolard, and George Bowen. This was a thrill to the ones that were chosen and it made the whole class feel honored. We began to feel that we were a part of the school activities.

Now as we look into the past, we remember being Sophmores. That was the year we knew all there was to know--and more. We realized how foolish we had acted as freshmen, and we began to wonder how it would feel to be juniors. But now as seniors, we are beginning to understand how little we do know, and deep in our hearts we are thanking our teachers for making us study as much as we did, although, we sometimes thought it most unnecessary.

It has been said that the junior year is the great changing period of high school life. During that year we presented a hilarious comedy, "The Boarding House Reach." The money from this play went toward the Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme of our banquet was "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star." This presented many problems that were not easy to solve, but leave it the juniors--We solved them.

Also that same year there were many outstanding students from our class to receive recognition in different activities. Travis Sullivan, Cedrec Black and Larry Cutler helped to win the county championship in football. This was not only an honor to the junior class, but the whole school as well.

Judy Foreman and Vivian Woolard won first and second prize in a county-wide typing contest sponsored by East Carolina College. This also brought high honors to the junior class.

The same year George B. Bowen, Rufus Boyd, and Bobby Boyd won first prize in the state-wide Ritual and Parlimentary Procedure Contest of the FFA.

Now that we are seniors, we begin to recall the things that we have done this year. In the fall we had a wonderful trip to Washington, D. C. and New York. There were many experiences that we shall never forget. We were gone five days, but it only seemed like hours. Mrs. Faye Asby, our advisor, helped to make our trip a more enjoyable one.

Now as we recall all of these precious memories, we begin to realize how fast the hour of graduation is approaching. The tears we shed will be of joy and sorrow--Joy, because we have accomplished much during our hard climb up the ladder of learning--Sorrow, because we will be leaving behind us many good friends and teachers. Many thanks go to our senior advisors, Mrs. Faye Asby and Mrs. Evelyn Boyette, whose guidance has made it possible for us to think more seriously about the future. As our motto goes, "NEVER TURN BACK WHEN YOU ARE AT THE GOAL."

CLASS POEM

We're leaving you old B. H. S.
We're seniors now, and grieve
To think of all the happy times
We must forever leave.
The literature tests we'd always flunk,
Although we' thunk and thunk and thunk,
We never, ever could recall
Who wrote that "To a Waterfall,"
Or was it "Waterfowl"?
I 'disremember.!

The time of parting now is near.
We'll probably never construe
How teachers saw behind themselves,
And how they always knew
Just when we passed our Juicy Fruit
To be right there to prosecute.
The time that we wrote "Chewing Gum"
And other lines of tweedledum
To teach us right from wrong,
We can't remember.

We're leaving you dear B. H. S.
Reluctantly we see
No longer can we frolic quite
So gaily and giddily.
But memories we'll keep always
Of little scrapes and carefree days--
A smile, a laugh, a tear, a sigh--
These things that make the dear Bath High
Which we all love so well.
We'll all remember.
